TESTIMONY FINISHED IN MAY RIOT CASES

Mrs. Jessica Henderson of Wayland took the witness stand in the superior court yesterday at the trial of Martha Foley and eight other defendants for an alleged assault, May day, on Officer Samuel C. Hutchins at Roxbury, and admitted in response to a question by Asst.-Dist.-Atty. Lyons that she and Miss Foley spent a night at the Charles street jail for heckling President Wilson. She had previously testified that she knew Miss Foley as a peaceable woman of good character.

Evidence was finished last night and today Attys. Connolly and Shanley, for the defence, and Asst.-Dist.-Atty. Lyons, for the government, will argue. The case is expected to reach the jury tomorrow.
