

documents similar to those at the Ordonez residence. Moron was arrested and taken to jail where he was held incommunicado.

(Copyright, 1934, Associated Press)

EXILED GERMAN EDITOR TO SPEAK HERE TONIGHT

Dr. Franz Hoellering, former editor of the Berliner Zeitung am Mittag, a German exile, will be the principal speaker at a protest meeting to be held at the Old South Meeting House tonight at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the Boston committee to aid "victims of German Fascism." Dr. Hoellering will tell of his experiences as head of a former leading newspaper in Germany, which is now defunct.

Among other guests will be Marie Halberstadt, a school teacher refugee of Germany, and Jessica Henderson, who has recently returned from Paris, where she was a delegate to the International Women's Congress. Dr. Nathan Hess will preside at the meeting.

MILTON MAN IN MOTOR ACCIDENT RECOVERING

TILLSONBURG, Ont., Sept. 19 (AP) —Charles Ware of Milton, Mass., and Robert Wilder were making satisfactory progress in a hospital here today following an accident yesterday when their